

I am absolutely against a single company owning newspapers and broadcast stations in the same market.

The quality of radio programming has significantly degenerated since these large corporations have taken over our local stations. It is very difficult to get late breaking news at other than the appointed times.